W. Day was the only defendant from the straight and narrow path who appeared in the municipal court this morning. He had filled up on "joy to be joyful" and when he became fevered and sick he fell into a swoon in the hallway of Mrs. F. M. Bell's flat at No. 309½ West Superior street. Like a true soldier of fortune he had no money, no clothes and no mantle to shield his form, but went contentedly to sleep just where he struck the floor. Mrs. Bell was not satisfied with the lodger's manner as to his requirements, and had Mr. Day carried to the police station. He was fined $10 and costs this morning, which he paid.

The fourth game in the series of ladies' nights at the Duluth Whist Club was last night. Mr. and Mrs. Emory Tinkham scored highest north and south, Judge and Mrs. Moer winning east and west, each couple making 150 points.

The "Reds" of the Y. M. C. A. have decided to propose a speedup in their regular meetings, March 6. This is done on account of the desire on the part of many of their friends, to attend the games at the Duluth Bethel next Friday.

Judge Moer is again hearing the case of the Northern Pacific against the Scott Holsten Lumber company today.

March Term Calendar May Be a Long One.

Today, being the last opportunity for lawyers who are fortunate enough to have litigations in hand, to notice them for the March term, is a busy day in the office of the district attorney. The front door is open at nine, and he quickly lengthens in at a rapid rate. Up to noon there were about sixty cases, and in the sixty-five remaining cases, makes 125 with five hours in which to file more new cases.

A man has been brought in from the burners, and they sue for its value.

W. R. Triggs is their attorney.

Mark Clegg has suit for Mary Vige, for $275 for services. She claims that the defendant was in business here in 1883 and 1894 under the name of Jessie Lee, and that she acted as servant for her, and that she was a widow at that time, but Jessie Lee ran a house on 11th street in St. Croix avenue during those years.

The woman now lives in Washington, and the defendant has since got into Woodland, belonging to her.

A. D. Holmes is the attorney.

Judge Eustis has given a judgment for the defendant, notwithstanding the verdict for the plaintiff, in the case of Matilda Coleman against the Duluth Mississ. & Northern road. Mrs. Coleman was manager for the company of her son, who was killed on the Mississ. docks. Judge Eustis holds that there was no proof shown that the company was at fault, and that the company is not ordering a verdict for the defendant.

J. S. Pillsbury has sued A. E. Humphrey et al, to clear title to a large tract of land in 58-20. E. C. Galt is the attorney.

DECIDED

Judges Ensign and Morris have rendered an important ruling.

Act Empowering Surveyors to Subdivide Sections is Unconstitutional.

Decision Was Made in the Test Case Which Was Begun.

Judges Ensign and Morris have handed down an important decision which stops a waste which has already amounted to a considerable sum and which would have amounted to thousands of dollars in a very short time if it had been allowed.

They have decided that the law empowering the county surveyor to go ahead and subdivide all the sections he is called upon to subdivide is unconstitutional, and the surveyor's claims for such services are disallowed.

Petition For Free Delivery Was Forwarded to Washington Today.

Opposition to it Seems to Have Practically Died Out.

Ladies of the Maccabees Will Give an Entertainment Soon.

The petitions for the extension of the free delivery system to West Duluth were forwarded to Congressmen Towne today. About 100 signatures were obtained, which number was thought to be sufficient to satisfy the wish of the people in the matter.

See The Herald's interview with Postmaster Henski on the matter, opposition appears to have died away and there is a practical absence of opinion in regard to the movement. The petition simply seeks to secure a delivery of mail from the West Duluth office with the retention of the registry and other departments as heretofore, and can hardly meet with any opposition.

Morning and Evening.

The men who read the morning newspapers in the street cars are going from their homes to their offices. What do they do with their morning paper after they reach their stores, manufacturers and workshops? They throw it aside, to be picked up by a clerk, porter or office boy, or they toss it in the waste basket—they are done with it.

The men who read the evening papers in the street cars are going from their offices, stores, manufacturers and workshops to their homes. What do they do with their evening newspaper after they reach their homes? They give it to their wives, their daughters, their sons. Thus it comes about that the evening newspaper secures the reading that the morning newspaper does not and can not get.—Philadelphia Call.

J. B. Richards Suggested For City Attorney.

The race for the city attorneyship is set by him in a position to know, so far now between J. B. Richards and Ellsworth Bissell, but further reported that S. D. Allen has indicated that he does not desire to be considered.

For assessment, then, Bissell, the West Bench real estate man, is looming up as a prominent contestants with T. B. Hawkes, for the office of serving the public in that capacity.

Approval of the elective officers of the new administration, however, is not the only reason that he was in favor of the plan that the morning paper has suggested that the members of the incoming council be chosen by the voters.

That will save the members of the incoming council the embarrassment of being called to account for their actions.

Senate Chamber Filled With People to Hear the Cuban Debate.

Senator Lindsay's Strong
Plea For Recognition of Cuban Independence.

Followed By Senator Sherman Who Advocated Annexation to Mexico.

Washington, Feb. 28.—The senate galleries were well filled at the opening of the session today, in anticipation of the culmination of the Cuban debate, and the final vote set for 4 o'clock. Shortly after the session opened, Representative Eliot, chairman of the house committee on foreign affairs, joined M. Sherman, chairman of the senate committee on foreign relations, in a whispered conference at Senator Sherman's desk. The Ohio senator announced that the Cuban question would be taken up without waiting for the usual expiration of the morning hour at 2 o'clock.

Mr. Allen asked to withdraw the resolution of the House of Mr. Lloyd as a sense of official dignity. This brought up other discussion as to adding a postscript official to the bill. Mr. Allen finally

Mr. Sherman then moved the Cuban resolution to be taken up and this was carried. The debate then opened. Chairman Eliot remained alone. Mr. Sherman's speech was a speech of the German embassy occupied a seat in the gallery. By this time the public galleries were filled to their full limit, and there was a promise of more. The hour was yielded for the adjournment of the senate to consider the pension appropriation bill; also for the direct vote of the people, with instructions to report at next Friday's meeting of the committee.

The majority of the sub-committee consisting of the two Republican members, agreed to a report recommending that the resolution be passed. Gray dissenters from this view. It is now well understood that the resolution will be favorably reported to the Senate after its consideration by the full committee, but there will be a division on party lines.

Washington, Feb. 28.—The senate was meeting today a sub-committee consisting of Senators Mitchell, of Oregon, Burrows and Purple was appointed to consider Senator Mitchell's resolution to add a postscript official to the bill.

Mr. Eliot, chairman of the pension appropriation bill, also for the direct vote of the people, with instructions to report at next Friday's meeting of the committee.

Mr. Eliot addressed the senate on the Cuban resolution. He said that the conflict in Cuba was not very serious, and was being waged with such despatch that either a complete independence of Cuba or one and the same utter annihilation of the Cuban people would be the result.

The senator said he approached the question from the standpoint of humanity rather than from the point of view of expediency. Declaratory that they had no avay nothing.

The United States intends taking steps to withdraw these struggling Cubans, that they should be given the right of the ultimate independence of Cuba, declared Mr. Lindsay in his speech. The United States has not hesitated to take the position of recognizing the independence of Cuba, and similar to these new existing Cuban.

Quoting from international authorities the senator maintained that a condition precedent to the admission of the United States in considering a proposition for active intervention to restore order in Cuba was the humanity.

Mr. Lloyd said that the position which he urged did not contemplate active intervention, but with a view to the ultimate independence of Cuba, and its independence.

"The only way which will bring lasting peace to Cuba is to give it independence," said the senator.

The United States could not relieve itself from the responsibility of the Cuban situation, showed this island some kind of justice.

Court could say to the world that unless Cuba was given its independence by her own unanimous vote, she would be under the absolute subjection of Spain. Should we not say to Spain that some such a course was just and liberal, consistent with a enlightened age, must be shown from the state, and Houston, Tex.

PLATT IS HOME.

New York, Feb. 28.—The injuries which Tschauder, 28, received on Wednesday evening, by falling on the ice, are regarded as rather serious. Mr. Platt has been unable to bear his weight upon his legs, and if this condition were not given the doctor would have been called to him several times yesterday. It is now no improvement today, a consultation for the removal of Cuba from Spain's

At 10 o'clock, Feb. 28.—The dead bodies of Flores, 19 years old, were found today in the basement of a house at 207 West Fourth street, where the bodies had evidently been laid out. The girl had been committed some time past to the care of the Flores family. The bullet was shot in the right temple. Flores had died in the hospital, and the man in such a way that it is almost impossible to remove it without causing the patient's death.

ALLEGED LOTTERY ARRESTS.

At 10 o'clock, Feb. 28.—Thomas H. Powers, 28, a member of the Prohibition party, who is president of the Pan-American Investment company, was arrested here today by the United States authorities, who were using the lottery. He was released under $1000 bail.

J. E. Day, secretary of the company, was also arrested. The two companies are controlled by the Third Avenue company practically all the lines have been cut off by the police.

At 10 o'clock, Feb. 28.—He began his speech, closing the debate. He spoke of the keen sensitiveness of the Spanish people and their tendency to quickly resent any slight or injury offered to them. But Mr. Sherman said he felt that the United States, in view of the United States' long history, was entitled to crime almost beyond description.

The senator said he would not re-enter on his last argument so fully covered by Mr. Eliot, but the general arguments presented by Estrada Palma, the agent of the representative of the United States, were the same.

WHEAT WAS STRONG.

Large and Active Trading on the Duluth Board.

Wheat opened remarkably strong, on suspicion that the closing firmness on the day before was regarded as a mere expression of apprehension regarding the end wave which had been predicted. That day it was observed to be the most active session of the brain of the Chicago grain service official. That there were other grounds for the strength was clearly shown by the action of the market. The opening price for May on the Duluth board was 60c, being the highest point of the day, and after a slight dip to 58c it rose to 60c, at which point there was heavy buying and the market closed at 60c. Wheat bushels were dumped on the market and quickly absorbed.

On the cold wave to materialize having been summarily disposed of, attention turned to the market for the farmlands, the largest markets and to the reported review of the demand at Chicago for wheat, which was to be the result of working of 20,000 bushels to go to Texas and another 10,000 to Kentucky being among the factors of the market. Wheat was the only bushel to scare their antagonists out of their bushels had been worked at Buffalo for direct export. May sold up here to 60c, but was down to 58c, July sold late at 60c and was up to 61c. The mid-May bushels were 59c, July 60c, August 61c, and the elevators were under 60c. And the elevators were under 60c for wheat 10,000 bushels. The close was 60c, with a slight dip to 59c. The price of wheat will increase about 20c this week and it is expected that the price of wheat will be 60c on Monday. Following were the closing prices:

CUBA'S BELLIGERENCY.

Bu: for an objection raised by Capt. Boutelle, of the 10th Inf., to a resolution recognizing the Cuban insurgents as belligerents would have passed the house of representatives yesterday. The Maine congressman, who is usually in a ferocious and warlike mood and never neglects an opportunity to twist the British lion's tail, was awfully afraid that the passage of the resolution would plunge the United States into a war with Spain and demanded that further time be given to the consideration of the resolution. Inasmuch as unanimous consent was necessary under the house rules to pass the resolution, Mr. Boutelle's objection carried it over till today.

It is possible that Spain might postpone this resolution as a casus belli. If so, let her so construct it and this country will be willing to abide by the result of any trouble which may ensue. This is no reason why we should refuse the Cubans such recognition as they deserve. They have earned the right to be accorded recognition by this country, and no possibility of trouble with Spain should constrain us to refuse them belligerent rights. Before the battle of Bull Run had been fought, two months after the firing upon Fort Sumter, Spain recognized the Confederates as belligerents and acted accordingly. It did not amount to much, but as far as it amounted to anything, Spain did it. The United States is not slow in the case of the Cuban insurgents, when compared with the precipitate action of Spain thirty-five years ago.

The whole country is in favor of recognizing the belligerency of the Cuban patriots. Mr. Boutelle may want further time to consider the resolution, but the people generally long ago formed their opinions on the question, and their sentiments are well expressed in the resolution now before the house. The resolution should be adopted without further delay.

SOUTH AFRICAN DEVELOPMENT.

Cecil Rhodes' plans for the development of South Africa were outlined in a recent number of the London Times, and the Milwaukee Sentinel presents a summary of the Times' article. It is stated that upon his return to the Cape, Mr. Rhodes will go to Bulawayo, in Rhodesia, where he intends to live for several years. Rhodesia is a strip of territory about 260 miles long and 100 miles wide, situated to the east of the British South African colony. It includes Matabeleland and Mashonaland, where high plateaus are said to abound in gold. The object of Mr. Rhodes is "to create under British administration a British Johannesburg in Rhodesia." It is all that the mining experts say of Rhodesia is true its mineral deposits are rich enough, taken with the attraction of British law, to outweigh the advantages of the Rand districts, and to turn investors to Rhodesia in preference to immigration.

The slight results which have thus far been obtained in Rhodesia are explained in this way: In the Transvaal, where transportation of heavy mining materials is expensive, intending miners have to bear the expense or to give up the thought of gold, because they know the Transvaal government is opposed to lowering the cost of transportation. In Rhodesia, where transportation is even more expensive, because the distances are greater from the coast to the mining districts, intending miners know that if they wait a few years railways will be built and transportation will be cheaper. Moreover, the cost of the taxes to be paid to the government for each mining claim as soon as it is pegged, in Rhodesia there is no tax upon pegged claims, taxation being postponed until the property tax has already yielded a profit to the taxpayer. Mr. Rhodes intends to promote the building of railways and the development of mining claims, and it is understood that he will put most of his own large fortune into local enterprises.

Rhodesia has other attractions besides its minerals. Both in vegetation and climate the uplands of Rhodesia are like the sheep-raising districts of Australia. "There is the same dry tonic heat and there are the same wide sweeps of grass for a considerable portion of the year is dried to the condition of sweet hay upon its roots." Merinos have been introduced in Rhodesia, upon a small scale, and have thrived there. Angora goats have also done well. In Matabeleland it is expected that horses breeding will be popular. And there are also the coffee, tea, spiced and possibly cotton. Mr. Rhodes believes that before the end of the century Rhodesia will contain a British community larger than that now engaged in developing the Transvaal, controlling few Dutch settlers, with its markets open to the world. The town in Rhodesia already control their own municipal taxation and elect their own councillors. The Times thinks it difficult to conceive that for the next few years Mr. Rhodes could be more profitably occupied than in the assemblings and legislative assemblies of the province.

The light sentence imposed upon Miss Flugler, who shot and killed a negro boy in Washington, was farcical. The shooting was a clear case of criminal recklessness, and it is not strange that there are anarchists when the courts are prone to such a gross miscarriage of justice.

The Moose Lake Star very properly criticizes the Buffalo Journal because of its statement that there is no sentiment around its neighborhood in favor of the Altkin railroad land tax collection. It says: "We are very angry about anything like a tax from a free and independent newspaper with brains in its masthead. If there is no such sentiment in Wright county, the Journal is not fulfilling its mission. It is its business to create it. It is its privilege to educate the people within its scope and influence to a knowledge of what is best for them. Surely Mr. Eaton will admit that a reduction of the tax burdens of the people of more than $2,000,000 is for the good of the people at large, let him be as indifferent as he will regarding Northern Minnesota and the struggles of those who are striving to develop it."

The Star is right. If there is no sentiment in Wright county in favor of taxing the railroad lands it is the duty of the Journal and friends of papers of that county who have neglected to educate their readers upon the importance of the question. They have failed to perform their duty as public journalists. But it was hardly to be expected that the Buffalo Journal would advocate anything that did not please the railroads or "Bill" Merriam.

A DULUTH CANDIDATE.

The Press Times of last week says: "W. O. Hall, of Duluth, is a prominent member of a suitable person for superintendent of the Cloud conference, vice W. E. Lee, resigned. It has been our pleasure to know Mr. Hall for many years, and we sincerely hope the board of managers will see their way clear to appoint him. His firmness in character, his executive ability and sterling integrity especially fit him for the important duties of superintendent. No better man could be found in the state."

The Northwestern portion of the state has never been given a state office of any kind, except a few of the complimentary positions without salaries, and it is about time for a change. Mr. Hall has been our representative in this section for superintendent of the reformatory and his claims should be carefully considered by the board of managers.

Mr. Hall is a man of great ability and the people of the state are anxious to have him appointed to a state office. The Star is right. If there is no sentiment in Wright county in favor of taxing the railroad lands it is the duty of the Journal and friends of papers of that county who have neglected to educate their readers upon the importance of the question. They have failed to perform their duty as public journalists. But it was hardly to be expected that the Buffalo Journal would advocate anything that did not please the railroads or "Bill" Merriam.

THE DAKOTAS.

AS NO. 5, a passenger train from the East on the Northern Pacific, pulled into the station at 10:30 a.m. yesterday, a buggy, killing the horses and throwing the drivers, Frank L. Brand and Miss May Suber, of Duluth, was pulled by a team of two horses, which was carried about twenty rods and was then stopped by a pile of logs, inflicting injuries from which the driver was killed. Mr. Brand was also injured, but not seriously.

The Star is right. If there is no sentiment in Wright county in favor of taxing the railroad lands it is the duty of the Journal and friends of papers of that county who have neglected to educate their readers upon the importance of the question. They have failed to perform their duty as public journalists. But it was hardly to be expected that the Buffalo Journal would advocate anything that did not please the railroads or "Bill" Merriam.

A representative of the Iowa Gun club is in Fargo, and has employed Mayor Hall to represent him in the North Dakota gun law case. The code provides that non-residents, pulled into the city of Fargo, will be fined 10 cents for the privilege of hunting in the city. The gun club is the only one in the Iowa man this afternoon, which was rejected by Auditor Miller, and suit will be filed in the state supreme court that the gun clubs in other Northwestern states are interested in a test case.

GOOD SALE

Howard & Haynie Stock Bid
in This Morning By I.
Freimuth.

Toward the Close He and
J. G. Howard Were the Only Bidders.

Sale Was Made For More Than Half the Inventored Value.

The Howard & Haynie stock, fixtures and leases were sold in a lump this morning to I. Freimuth for $18,151.

The sale took place at 10 o'clock in the store room of Howard & Haynie, 217 Superior Street. There was a considerable number of men in attendance, many of whom came to bid while others came to see the sale, which was ever so much more lively and interesting than before when bids were received sealed. The sale was made by order of the district court, the previous day, D. M. Hodge, of Winona, having been appointed receiver.

Auctioneer W. D. Gordon mounted one of the counters in the front room and with his chin in his hand and with his chin in his hand, read the order of the court calling the sale. This over the sale began.

"For bids on this stock and fixtures as inventory, over or under, as you find it," announced the auctioneer. "What do I hear?"

"Four thousand dollars," responded Mr. Freimuth promptly.

"Ten thousand five hundred," from C. W. Elston.

"Eleven thousand," bid Johnson & Moore.

"It went up $500 at a time, until it reached $14,500."

"How you get through?" asked the auctioneer. "You didn't all come in to see me. I'm not a beauty show."

Mr. Freimuth showed that he was not then so lekenon by advancing the bid to $14,600.

"Fourteen thousand seven hundred," spoke John G. Howard for the first time.

"Eight hundred," responded Mr. Freimuth.

"Are you all through?" Fourteen thousand eight hundred, once, twice, third and last."

"Fourteen thousand nine hundred," called Mr. Howard.

From this time on the bidding was between Mr. Howard and Mr. Freimuth, advancing steadily $100 at a time. When the amount reached $15,500 there was a pause.

"If you can't use the dumb alphabet," said the auctioneer.

"Six hundred," from Mr. Howard.

Then it started again and advanced rapidly, $100 at a time, up to $16,600, bid by Mr. Johnson & Moore, and then rattling his patter off meanly, and there was a half here in the bids.

KNICKED IT OFF.

"Are you all through?" Clapping his hands several times he called, "sold to Mr. Howard."

"Sixteen thousand," called Mr. Freimuth, just as the sale was announced, but the auctioneer had jumped down on the counter.

A crowd of protest went up, and the sale was resumed at Mr. Freimuth's bid of $16,700. Then it again advanced steadily, and touched $18,100, which was the size of the amount now offered and the manner of the bidders, that the sale was nearing the close.

"I can't bid any more," said Mr. Howard.

"I can't bid any more," said Mr. Freimuth.

"Eighteen thousand three hundred," called Mr. Freimuth finally. The auctioneer talked on for several minutes, there were no more bids.

"Sold to Mr. Freimuth for $18,300," announced the auctioneer. "Now Mr. Freimuth got the required certified check and deposited it with Assignee Nichols, and the leases were put up. They were leased at $5, and sold to I. Freimuth for $15,500."

The sale was over, and the crowd left, with congratulations right and left.

Mr. Freimuth, in his congratulations, having shown his enterprise and business sagacity by securing a valuable stock and leases, and Assignee Nichols having secured a good price for his failure to answer.

"Eighteen thousand three hundred," called Mr. Freimuth finally. The auctioneer talked on for several minutes, there were no more bids.

HIGH-WATER MARK.

THE WEATHER.

United States Agricultural Department Weather Bureau, Duluth. Scans of weather conditions for the twenty-four hours ending at 12 m. (Eastern time) on Feb. 29. The mercury has risen in all districts, except the Southwest, to which the winter has not yet descended.

An area of cloudiness and snow has extended eastward from the Rocky mountains east to Michigan, and as far south as the Lower Mississippi. The snowfall has been accompanied with high north east and north winds through the Great Lakes, thus utilizing the force of the series of waterfalls, an expensive matter. Different projects have been agitated from time to time, and capital has looked approvingly at them, but the plan has never been carried through. Now, if all the interests behind the water companies concerned have come to an agreement, they can bring into being at the head of Lake Superior an amount of horse power sufficient to conduct all the industries that will locate there for many years to come. Such a project would, of course, give an immense impetus to the growth of Duluth; would be to it what the improvement of the falls of St. Anthony was to Minneapolis. Inasmuch as the growth of one part of the state tends to the prosperity of all, we wish success to a scheme that is just now gilding the gloom in which the speculators in Duluth real estate have been held for some time past."

SENATOR NELSON AROUSED.

The Minneapolis Journal yesterday published a fair simile of a letter written by Senator Nelson to a friend in this state. It is said that similar letters have been sent to quite a number of the senator's political friends. In this letter, Senator Nelson says:

"Gen. Washburn and the Minneapolis Journal have lost no opportunity to attack and insult me since my election to the senate. They are now engaged in a similar attack against Governor Clough, much harder, and it is not difficult or hard to name a good governor, as to punish him for helping to elect me to the senate, and thereby snatching his own promotion. Their campaign against Clough is carried on with the twofold purpose of defeating him and humiliating me. From week to week I am made the subject of insult and caricature, either in the Journal, or, if more than usually gross, in the Democratic issue—the Times. I am here working hard, early and late, trying to serve and represent the state's creditably and to the best of my ability. Under these circumstances, it is hard and unfair to be subject to such insults and attacks. In view of these facts, I hope that you and other friends will not aid those who are conducting such warfare against Governor Clough and myself, but will see that our cause is sustained and that I have fair play."

The Herald is not satisfied with Senator Nelson, who has received from the Minneapolis Journal, which affects to be a Republican paper, and its morning edition, the Times, which preaches Democracy. The insulting attacks which these papers have made upon Senator Nelson and Governor Clough—the result of the bitter feeling arising from Washburn's defeat by Nelson last winter—have been of such a nature that no man possessing ordinary sensibilities could refrain from striking back. Senator Nelson would have surprised his friends had he remained silent. He is, however, these bitter attacks, and they are not at all satisfied with the sentiments expressed above. The course pursued by the Journal and the Times, and the "committee of 160" in Minneapolis, instead of injuring Governor Clough, has helped him in his candidacy in other parts of the state. The Herald does not state this, because it believes that Mr. Clough will or should be nominated. The indications are that the Sixth district will have a gubernatorial candidate, and he will probably receive the solid support of the Sixth district, of which Duluth is a part.

It is not unusual to accuse additional feelings against Nelson and Clough, on account of this letter, and says that the "enlistment of Senator Nelson in behalf of Governor Clough means his open antagonism to Mr. Van Sant, Mr. Gibbs, Mr. Easton, Mr. Lee (if he decides to be a candidate), and Mr. Clapp, unless that gentleman, as is suspected, comes into the race merely to inherit the remains of Governor Clough's political estate." If the result be as the Journal says, there are no persons more responsible for the senator taking a hand in the gubernatorial campaign than those in Minneapolis, whose views the Journal Times is supposed to reflect. Governor Clough has been fortunate in having the opposition of such a political gang, and if Mr. Lee becomes a candidate it is to be hoped that he will also incur their opposition.

A BIG THING FOR DULUTH.

The Red Wing Republican in a recent number contained an excellent article on the great importance to Duluth of the negotiations now pending for the consolidation of the various steamship companies operating on the St. Louis river water power, the first announcement of which was made by the Herald last summer. The article avoids the great impetus which the proposed consolidation of interests would give to Duluth as an industrial point, and as the views expressed are those of a disinterested outsider, they will naturally be regarded with more consideration than if expressed by a Duluth paper, which would be under the suspicion of allowing its enthusiasm too much play. The Red Wing paper says:

"It is true that the rival companies which have been fighting for so many years over the water power at Duluth have, like the two sides of a contest, been unable to decide which is the best for the city. It may mean a big thing for the city, it will be, indeed, a fortunate thing for it, that this contest defered the utilization of the power until the day of electricity had arrived. For there are hundreds of fine water powers in the country today which have been improved after the old fashion, made to turn turbines and run mills, and so become saddled with water right and other charges until most of the commercial value has been wiped out, which would make the fortunes of the town in which they lie if they could be harnessed to the dynamo now, free from all previous incompatibility.

"As every body knows who has ever visited the head of the lakes, there is an enormous amount of water power going to waste in the St. Louis river. The prospect of the stream as a source of power, thus utilizing the force of the series of waterfalls, is an expensive matter. Different projects have been agitated from time to time, and capital has looked approvingly at them, but the plan has never been carried through. Now, if all the interests behind the water companies concerned have come to an agreement, they can bring into being at the head of Lake Superior an amount of horse power sufficient to conduct all the industries that will locate there for many years to come. Such a project would, of course, give an immense impetus to the growth of Duluth; would be to it what the improvement of the falls of St. Anthony was to Minneapolis. Inasmuch as the growth of one part of the state tends to the prosperity of all, we wish success to a scheme that is just now gilding the gloom in which the speculators in Duluth real estate have been held for some time past."

SENATOR CARTER'S POSITION.

Since Senator Carter boldly declared in the senate that he would oppose any legislation affecting the tariff or the finances that did not provide for genuine bimetallism, and that he refused to be read out of the Republican party by those who falsely interpreted the national platform to declare in favor of the single gold standard, all the Republicans can hardly be blamed for not supporting him, and some have even said that he should be deposed from the chairmanship of the national committee, to which position he was elected at the request of President Harrison in 1862.

Hon. J. S. Clarkson, of Iowa, who is a member of the national committee, has given out an interview that is calculated to cool down the excited goldbugs to a considerable extent. He points out that Mr. Carter is the legal chairman of the committee and will be the chairman until a new committee is elected. And then Mr. Clarkson proceeds to shew why rebuke those who are trying to read Mr. Carter out of the party. Here is what Mr. Clarkson says at this point:

"I regret the violent obstruction of the silver question on the scene of public affairs in the face of a presidential election, but I can see how Senator Carter can claim to stand on the bimetallic plank in the party platform and give his own interpretation to it. For the Republican party has always been for bimetallism, and has never recanted. It is to the party that he is attached, and thereby saving his own promotion. Their campaign against Clough is carried on with the twofold purpose of defeating him and humiliating me. From week to week I am made the subject of insult and caricature, either in the Journal, or, if more than usually gross, in the Democratic issue—the Times. I am here working hard, early and late, trying to serve and represent the state's creditably and to the best of my ability. Under these circumstances, it is hard and unfair to be subject to such insults and attacks. In view of these facts, I hope that you and other friends will not aid those who are conducting such warfare against Governor Clough and myself, but will see that our cause is sustained and that I have fair play."

If the result be as the Journal says, there are no persons more responsible for the senator taking a hand in the gubernatorial campaign than those in Minneapolis, whose views the Journal Times is supposed to reflect. Governor Clough has been fortunate in having the opposition of such a political gang, and make the fight for the state at their own expense. They have failed to do this, and the auditor is prepared to cancel their lease, which he claims he was compelled to issue in order to be in a position to make the fight. The fact is that the parties who secured the lease now see that the state has little chance of winning and they will be paying the expense of fighting the case.

J. H. Beadle, a well known Washington correspondent, devotes a large portion of a recent letter to an account of Mr. Towne's great speech in congress. He says he never witnessed such a scene in the house as that, when Mr. Towne was speaking. "It was amusing," Mr. Beadle says, "to watch such old gold-dusts as Dingley, Cannon, Grosvenor, Boutelle and Walker, who never took eyes off the speaker, interrupted, but sat like enraptured amateurs listening to a giant in question, and when a new member insisted on asking a question, there was a general groan of disapproval, and it was not until the speaker had finished that the taut tongues were loosed. They are indeed not short full skirts, which come just below the full trousers, while the legs and waist are broad and squat, and the skirt is somewhat shorter than the skirt, so that they are well covered long legs of full leather, which are not unlike those of a man, and the waist is not so fine as one prefers, the short lace shoe and long tan gauntlets, buttoned up the sides. ## DRAMATIC

Murray and Mack, the Comedians, in "Finnigan's Ball" Tonight.

"The White Rat," a Thrilling Comedy Drama, on Monday Evening.

Alexander Salvini Will Be Seen in Two Great Plays Next Week.

"Finnigan's Ball" will be produced at the Lyceum this evening. Comedy is undoubtedly the craze at present. The amusement-loving public demands something new and novel, and in farce-comedy, interspersed with up to date specialties, it finds this with gratification. Among the managers we see the demand as Frank T. Merton, who this season presents the new "Finnigan's Ball" as a vehicle in which his comedy stars, Murray and Mack, and an exciting supporting company, cannot fail to amuse the most fastidious audience. The plot is so simple a child can understand it, but what a riotous comedy, that old and young will be in an uproar of laughter until the fall of the curtain on the last act. Clever specialties and novelty are introduced throughout. The famous singing of a high grade, the choruses are catchy and bright and everything goes with a dash and a vim that is highly entertaining.

Murray and Mack are standard comedy producers and originators, and are two of the greatest favorites in their special line. The "Graffiti" and "Graffiti" composition of the latest and catchiest songs is a highly entertaining feature, while the London Sissies, expertly produced, draw all the latest graces and agility. The size and physical appearance of these young ladies is nearly the same, and many amateur comedians are the equals of "Finnigan's Ball," plays the part of Widow Gallagher, and his representation is an exceedingly funny one, included in the balance of the cast, may be mentioned. Edith Newell, Sophie, Rita, Dixie, and Loretta Deane, all pretty girls and clever singers and actresses. The male contingent includes Clayton E. Walter, Bert Leslie, Charles Lamb and Vincent Minelli.

"THE WHITE RAT." B. N. Stephens will be seen by Duluthans on Monday evening at the Lyceum. Some of the details of the story are quite novel. All the scenes are in New York, and there is a strong undercurrent of characters whose prototypes are to be found in the streets of the metropolis. The play is located first in a saloon, then in a hall and接着在 a room on an East river pier, then in a Chinese laundry, then in a Chinese opium joint in Peil street, then in an East Side street, then in a room on a gay boulevard, all of which is supposed to occur at night.

The staging of the production is said to be unusually clever. The scenes are well planned to be one of excellence and includes in the leading role of Albert Lindley, William Bonell, an actor who is said to be the equal of any man in the country. Evans, an eccentric comedian, is said to do strong favor in the role of a tramp. John C. Legg, a character actor of the first rank, is to be seen. The former, a former amateur, will be headed by Miss Ross Stand. The balance of the roles are promised to be in capable hands.

ALEXANDER SALVINI. During the past year he has been by a star who has always been popular here, Alexander Salvini. On Friday evening at the Lyceum, at an opportunity of seeing this very promising and gifted artist, Mr. Salvini has been meeting with great success in this the greatest of Shakespeare's tragedies. The Denver Times says he has been a great success.

Mr. Salvini's conception of Hamlet is the most original with the present generation of the stage. His interpretation of the character and his representations of speech it would easily be the greatest. Even with his faults included it is by far the most interesting and most sympathizing of the actors in America since Edwin Booth, and in the matter of detail and fitness displayed in the purer dramatic "business" of the play he is second to none. He is both commanding and attractive.

Whatever doubts may have existed as to Mr. Salvini's ability as a Shakespearian actor seem to have been completely swept away last evening. His interpretation of the lines of the Elizabethan poet and dramatist underlined the most difficult of characters were fully in evidence from the conclusion of the act to the end of the play. His Hamlet, with his capricious and simple as regards conception, and in the much-discussed question of sanity, the actor leaves not the slightest doubt as to his fitness for the part. He is a Hamlet, in brief, a Hamlet with a purpose, and that purpose so well defined and so apparent that the method in the assumed madness is clear to the most superficial of observers. It had been feared that Mr. Salvini's Hamlet would possibly be overwrought and over-romantic—too enthusiastic and too elaborate a conception. It was, on the contrary, a properly subdued performance, and had a decided strength where strength was most called for. Above all, it was highly consistent. His style of delivery perfectly matched the impersonation of the famous classic in this city. It is especially gratifying to witness so admirable a performance.

On Friday evening Mr. Salvini will present "Don Quixote de Bazan," the first play in which he appeared here. No play was ever received with more favor and enthusiasm than that which he made.

"Gwen! Gwen, darling, won't you tell me what you are thinking about?" he said. "Why shouldn't I? I was thinking that if I could get you, you would be glad to be with me."

"I told you, 'Don Quixote de Bazan,' the first play in which he appeared here. No play was ever received with more favor and enthusiasm than that which he made."

A Miner Trifles With an Actress' Affection.

A woeful tale of outraged affection, in which a heart-broken actress, a stick of soldier and a bairn-like owner figure conspicuously, was unfolded to Dicks' Saturday Evening Post, by the Chicago Inter Ocean.

The heart-broken girl appeared in the "White Rat" last night, and has been singing as follows: Dress circle, $4; parquet, $4; vest, $3; family circle, $2; balcony, $2.50; standing room, $2. The play will open on Tuesday, March 10.

How the Matinee Girl Gushed About it.

San Francisco Examiner: "Gorgeous, isn't it?" says Madge, stopping to goggle it over in the foyer.

"Madge, rather!" I said, disengaging myself from San Francisco.

"Now that you're with me, it's simply irritating the way people excuse things in San Francisco," I said. "It is different than from other towns. There are more things to do, more to see, more to do."

"Anything but—as Bertie says. There are a few lit looking women, but they are not young, and there is an aptitude of laughter until the fall of the curtain on the last act. Clever specialties and novelty are introduced throughout the world, the London Sissies, expertly produced, draw all the latest graces and agility. The size and physical appearance of these young ladies is nearly the same, and many amateur comedians are the equals of "Finnigan's Ball," plays the part of Widow Gallagher, and his features—with variations—ever since. Music has a singularly dignifying effect on me. It seems to subdue my spirit, and quiet my mind, and if I'll like it, it's good for me, and if I don't like it, it's good for me, and do something which I can actually see in. And I won't have it."
